

House of War

Alliance: Alliance of the Lily

Political Leaders: High Lord Brandon Electus Caddell and High Lady Cahira Helen Kelley

Geographical Features: Vulpian River, Belethyn Mountains, Bhean Ocean

Main Exports: Iron ore and iron, coal, oil

Cultural Notes: The House of War is a unique, self-sufficient community. They have enough resources to nearly fully sustain themselves without assistance from any of the other Houses. They keep to themselves mostly because they can afford to. They have the largest army out of all of the Houses and keep their people well trained, ready to move on a moment's notice.

Fun Fact: Despite being a member of the Alliance of the Lily, they rarely participate in their affairs, and they almost are never seen at realm-wide celebrations.
